RGCX Positioned for Growth with New Owner

- RGCX acquired by Corrum Capital
- New owner plans to fuel growth of railcar portfolio and leasing business

Marietta, Georgia. (June 19, 2018) – RGCX, LLC announced that it has been acquired by Corrum Capital. The acquisition provides RGCX with greater resources and flexibility in the railcar market and enables the company to pursue a long-term growth strategy.

“RGCX is very pleased to welcome Corrum Capital as our new owner,” said Nick Tupper, president of RGCX. “Corrum Capital brings a unique blend of financial expertise, market access, and management insight through their ownership of other leasing and operating businesses. We are excited to further grow our railcar portfolio and expand our customer relationships.”

As a result of the acquisition, Jason Cipriani, co-managing partner of Corrum Capital Management, Jonathan Mandle, co-managing partner of Corrum Capital Management and Michael Robinson, senior advisor to Corrum Capital Management will join RGCX’s board of directors.

“We look forward to working with the RGCX team to execute on a long-term, disciplined growth strategy that leverages the company’s significant experience in the railcar leasing market,” said Cipriani. “RGCX has been in operation for over forty years, and we look forward to working with the team to develop the company’s next chapter.”

DVB Bank SE provided financing for the acquisition. Moore & Van Allen PLLC acted as transaction counsel to Corrum Capital.
